

Instructor Guide

- To log into the platform, click: <https://bizfundamentals.in/>
- Click on the Instructor tab, Id: {respective email address}; password: instructor
- To change the password click on the profile section
- Once enter, find your course code written in blue
- Click on the course code to see participants' performance
 - The KPI represents the goal participant need to achieve in the simulation
 - To download all KPIs of a participant in one go, click on "Export"
 - To download the individual report, round wise click on the decision snapshot against the participant's name
 - Go back to the home page for other features
- Click on the Course Code arrow on the card to find an overview of participants' registration
- Use the attempts button to change the number of times students can play the game
- You can use the attempt option to archive the course and then easily unarchive it whenever needed.
- The time button represents the start and end time set by the instructor which allows participants to access the course on provided deadline.